T. G. WEBBER, Supt.

Toto by the Defendant-A Pecultur Case.

The case of Annie Peters Brain and Mary S. Brain Swarthout vs. Mary B Brain came up for trial before Judge Zane in the Third district court yesterday morning, P. L. Williams appearing for the plaintiff and F. S. Richards and J. H. Moyle appearing for the defendants. The plaintiff alleged that Edward Brain died in day preceding Mr. Brain's death; that on May 22, when Mr. Brain was fatally sick, he directed that the deed to the property be carried to Schettler with a request to the latter to prepare a draft of the mort gage to secure the loan, and that the mort gage, when prepared, be sent to him for acknowledgment; that the deceased had for years intimate business relations with Mr. Schettler and had entire confidence in his business capacity, integrity and friendship; that at 8 p.m. on May 22, the day preceding Mr. Brain's death, Mr. Schettler with a moustry, went to the residence of the deceased and presented a paper having the general appearance of a mortgage and which the piaintiffs and the deceased understood to be the said mortgage; that without explanation of its contents, the deceased and Annie Peters Brain signed and acknowledged the instrument; that after the death of Mr. Brain, who expired twelve hours later, the plaintiffs discovered that instead of the instrument being a mortgage, it was in fact a deed conveying the premises to Mary B. Brain.

The plaintiffs alleged that the defendant, The property of the property a deed conveying the premises to Mary B. Brain.

The plaintiffs alleged that the defendant, Mr. Scheitler and others, conspiring how they could cheat, wrong and defraud the plaintiffs and other heirs at law, fraudulently and falsely presented the deed to the deceased and Annie Peters Brain and fraudulently obtained their signatures thereto, under the belief on their part that the instrument was the mortgage aforesaid.

Plaintiffs further allege that the deed was made without any consideration passing therefor, and without the knowledge or consent of the plaintiff. Annie Peters Brain, and the deceased, and wholly goposed to the will and pleasure of each of them; that the deed would not have been executed had they known the facts.

Therefore the plaintiffs asked that the deed wold, and that it be set aside and annulled and the record thereof cancelled.

THE USURPERS MUST GET OUT

Their Attorney Says the Fight 1s a Hopeless One, and He Is Ready and Willing to Quit.

In the case of Eli A. Folland vs. Dan Wolstenholme, involving the title to the office of councilman from the Third precinct, Judge Powers yesterday filed an answer, in which he simply denies each and every allegation in the complaint.

Judge Powers was seen by a HERALD reporter yesterday, and when asked if he intended to fight the case, he replied that he simply filed the answer because he had not been able to see Mr. Wolstenholm. He did not think any contest would be made, as he intended to advise Mr. Wol-stenholme to allow the plaintiff to obtain a judgment of ouster against him without delay. Asked as to whether he intended to pursue the same poley in all of the counclimen cases, Judge Powers replied that he did, so that in a very short time the six usurpers will, in all probability, retire from the council.

Must Support His Children.

The trial of John Arnold, Jr., of the Sixth ward, in the charge of falling to provide for his family, was concluded before Commissioner Greenman yesterday. The defendant was found guilty, but judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost and the court said that a man could not shift the responsibility of caring for his children upon anyone else. It appeared from the witness that the defendant married his wife under duress, but after that he lived with her as his wife and another child was begotten. By that he condoned all that happened before. It was his duty to take care of those children. The law compelled him to do that, although it could not compel him to live with his wife. If the defendant, to avoid fulfilling his duty, refused to work, then the law would make him work for the benefit of the municipality. The court thought he was able at the was suspended upon payment of the cost The court thought he was able at the present time to pay $5 a week for the sup-port of the children and an order was made requiring Arnold to do so.

THE ESCHEAT PROCEEDINGS.

In the escheat proceedings against certain real estate, consisting of 2,237 acres of land situated south of this city, and J. W. Fox, jr., the defendants yesterday entered a demurrer to the complaint on the ground that the complaint aid not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action that there is a like suit now pending. It is stipulated that the defendant is bound in the sum of $500 to appear in the suit and abide all orders of the court and pay all money, expenses or damages that may be The defendant also excepts to the in awareed.

The defendant also excepts to the information or complaint because it is information or complaint because it is informal, irregular and unsatisfactory; that it was not filed until after Messrs. Armstrong and Fox had intervened and filed their claim and answer to the original proceedings, and that the information was filed without application to the court; that it cannot be ascertained from the information whether it is intended as a replication to the claim and answer of Armstrong and Fox, or whether it is intended as as an informative in a new suit; that all matters set forth in the informatory contained in its first paragraph are wholly irrelevant and should be stricken out; that certain other specified portions of the information should be stricken out for the same reason.

well known grocer of Staunton, Va. He says Before 1878 I was in excellent health, weighing over 200 pounds. In that year an ailment developed into acute dyspepsia, and soon I was reduced to 162 pounds, suffering burning intense sensations in the stomach, palpitation of the heart, nausea, and indigestion. I could not sleep, lost all heart in my work, had fits of melancholin, and for days at a time I would have welcomed death. I became morose, sullen and irritable. and for eight years life was a burden. I tried many physicians and many remedies. One day a workman employed by me suggested that I take Sarsapait had Suffering rilla, as it had wife of sia. I did so, and before taking the whole of a bottle I began to feel the a park man. The a bottle I began to feel like a new man. The terrible pains to which I had been subjected, ceased, the palpitation of the heart subsided. my stomach became easier, nausea disap-peared, and my entire system began to
